1. Permission to photograph and film

This consent covers Web Gecko, the products, services and brands it owns or manages, and organisations Web Gecko photographs or films for or with. Web Gecko manages this consent and is the contact for questions and withdrawal requests.

2. How the material may be used

Web Gecko may crop photographs, edit video, adjust sound and colour, and add captions or branding for the purposes above. Editing must not misrepresent me or present my words or actions in a misleading context.

I understand that I will not be paid for this material unless payment is separately agreed in writing, and that Web Gecko does not need to ask my approval for each use covered by this consent.

3. Photos and videos I supply

This consent also covers photographs and videos I voluntarily supply to Web Gecko, including by email, for the same promotional purposes — website carousels, social media posts, event promotion and paid advertising. I confirm I own this material or have the owner's permission, and I will tell Web Gecko if other identifiable people appear so any additional permissions can be obtained.

4. Online publication

Social media includes platforms such as LinkedIn, Facebook and Instagram. Web Gecko may choose the platforms it considers suitable for these purposes.

Material published online may be viewed worldwide. Other people and services may copy, download, screenshot, share or store it, and social media platforms may process and store it overseas under their own terms and privacy policies. Web Gecko is not responsible for the actions of other people, platforms or services.

5. Withdrawing consent

I may withdraw my consent at any time by emailing Web Gecko at the address on page 1, identifying myself and the relevant photographs or videos. Web Gecko will stop new uses and, as soon as reasonably practicable, remove the material from public pages it controls or edit out my identifiable image or voice. It will ask relevant client and partner organisations to do the same, but cannot remove content from their accounts directly.

Withdrawal cannot undo past publication or guarantee removal of third-party copies, caches or archives.

Even after Web Gecko removes material from its website or social media accounts, copies may remain in search engine caches, internet archives, platform backups, shared posts or other people's devices. Web Gecko cannot control these copies or guarantee complete or permanent removal from the internet.

6. Limits and conditions

Consent is voluntary. I may decline or set limits below. Web Gecko uses this form to record consent and manage enquiries or removal requests, and will not publish the form or my contact details.

7. Confirmation

By signing this document, I authorise Web Gecko and people working on its behalf to photograph and film me, including recording my voice, for the event, project or arrangement above. I authorise use of this material to promote the relevant businesses, products, services, brands and organisations through their websites, social media accounts and paid social media advertising, subject to any limits recorded in this form.
